

Maryland Fire & Rescue Institute University of Maryland

Virtually Presents

John W. Hoglund Maryland Officers Seminar

Principled Leadership from the Road Less Traveled

- Featuring: Dr. David Griffin, Battalion Chief
Charleston, South Carolina Fire Department
- Date: Saturday, March 27, 2021
- Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
- Location: University of Maryland Canvas/Zoom Delivery Platform
- Presentation: This is a highly interactive and scenario-based course that allows the attendees to develop their leadership skills in a supportive environment with their peers and also with a modern leader who has 22 years of Principled Leadership experience with the education to coincide with it. Attendees are taken on a descriptive journey of seven identified characteristics to build a foundation and then are provided interactive team building activities to highlight the specifics of each characteristic. Following this, group activities are utilized where leadership challenges are presented to the class, and each specific group must utilize the concept of Principled Leadership to guide them to a decision. These scenarios are based on challenges from emergency scenes, personnel issues, stress management issues, and a host of other scenarios from real life situations.
- Keynote: Prioritizing the 21st Century Fire Service
Reginald D. Freeman, MS, FIFireE, CFO
Fire Chief – Emergency Management Director
City of Hartford, Connecticut
- Audience: This program is designed for Chief / Line Officers, and other interested Emergency Services personnel.
- Registration: Pre-registration is open to all interested persons.
Please register on the Maryland Fire and Rescue Institute home page <http://www.mfri.org/seminars>. Priority will be given and there is no fee for Maryland emergency services members or Maryland residents. Non-members/residents will be charged a $50 registration fee.